

ADRS'YA

Photography Competition

Adrs`ya is Archcult's photography challenge to capture events and objects around us in new and interesting perspectives. Get creative, unleash your imagination. Experiment with various styles, lenses, filters and methodologies. Show us what you see in the world around you.

● ● ● THEME ● ● ●

Call it vision, ideation, imagination, or seeing; photography comes down to the same thing: the ability to envision a final result in your mind's eye, and then to make it so with your tools at hand. It's never been about the gear. It's always been about seeing something, knowing how you want it to look, and making it so.

For this edition of Archcult, we want you to submit entries (Maximum number of entries being limited to three and you must clearly mention which topic you are submitting under) on your interpretation of the following topics

IDENTITY | CHAOS | CALM

● ● ● RULES ● ● ●

- A participant can submit only one entry per topic. Hence, a maximum of three photographs per participant.
- Participants sending entries for all three topics will be preferred.
- Students pursuing undergraduate/ postgraduate courses in recognised colleges of India are allowed to participate.
- All photographs must have a caption and each must clearly mention the photograph for the respective caption and its topic in the body of the mail along with the contact details of the participant.
- The EXIF information for the photographs must be intact.
- Minimum resolution of the photos should be 8 Megapixels.
- Photos taken on mobile phone cameras are allowed.
- Participants can post-process their photos using Adobe Lightroom or any other photo editing software. "Mobile filters are not allowed". Adobe Photoshop is strictly not allowed. Entries found to be 'Photoshopped' will be disqualified.
- For post-processed images the originals, in JPEG format should also be submitted.
- Only one picture per frame is allowed. Collage or composite of 2 or more pictures in a single frame is not allowed.
- All Photographs must have a caption.
- The participants assure the organizers that they completely own the work submitted.
- The participants agree that any photographs irrespective of their colleges may be selected and exhibited by the judge/event manager at an appropriate venue.
- Photos taken prior to the release of the brief are eligible.
- All the photographs submitted must be in JPEG format only.
- Photographs must not have any borders, name, personal logos or watermarks.

- Entries should be compressed in zip format (not more than 5MB) and sent with the subject " Adrs'ya 2019_(college name)_(participant name)" to adrsya@archcult.org no later than 11:59 P.M, 15th February, 2019.
- Under any circumstances, Photographs once submitted cannot be taken back for changes or modifications.
- The decision of the judges is final and no discussion or correspondence will be entertained regarding the same. The judges reserve the right to cancel or vary the position awarded in case of discrepancies.
- Entries may be disqualified if any of the above criteria are not adhered to. The following prizes will be awarded to the winners:

1st prize-3 Months Online Foundation photography course worth Rs. 8000
2nd prize-3 Months Online Beginner's photography course worth Rs. 7000
3rd prize-3 Months Online Beginner's photography course worth Rs. 4500

<http://adrsya.archcult.org>

Ashutosh : 9784601387

Shirin : 7904219570

NIT Trichy's Architectural Symposium

➤➤➤➤ 22 23 24 FEB